16-1 EXECUTION OF CORPORATE DOCUMENTS

The California Supreme Court recently issued a ruling (Robert Snukal v. Flightways Manufacturing, Inc. 2000 Daily Journal D.A.R. 7795) clarifying the rules applicable to the execution of documents by corporations. The rules are as follows:

THIS APPLIES TO COUNTY MAPS ONLY

A. Corporation Code Section 313 and the safe harbor provided under said section for execution of documents by corporations applies when an instrument has been executed by two corporate officers, one from each of the following two groups: (a) the chairman of the board, president, or any vice-president; (b) the secretary, any assistant secretary, the chief financial officer, or any assistant treasurer; and

B. The signature of one person alone is sufficient to bind a corporation, as long as he or she holds corporate offices in each of the two categories described in Section 313. For County purposes, proof of such dual office holding will be satisfied by having the individual sign the instrument twice, each time indicating his or her office that qualifies under paragraph A above.

All documents executed on behalf of corporate parties must now comply with the above rules or will be rejected and returned without approval.
